

Identity verification as a three-phase user journey

Cornell email is the only identity primitive; guests retain a parallel read-only branch.

Production snapshot (April 2026): 184 registered users 100% Cornell email 170 verified (92.4%). The designed two-tier model collapses to one automatic tier in practice — no manual review queue is wired up.